Mail Service Back After L&N Fire

Train service to Bay St. Louis resumed yesterday afternoon by the L&N train which was delayed by the fire at the station.

The blaze, which caused about $1000 damage according to estimates, stepped off at 10:30 a.m. and was extinguished by the fire department.

The train, which runs between Bay St. Louis and New Orleans, was delayed for a day except Saturday and Sunday.

The L&N railroad personnel are working to get the train back on its regular schedule.

Court Delays Boundary Hearing Again

The Bayou LaCrosse beat line case which has been pending in court for seven years and scheduled to be heard by the State Supreme Court last week was postponed again, according to Beat 5 Supervisor R. G. Hubbard Jr., one of three county supervisors subpoenaed to appear at the hearing.

The case was originally filed by Beat 4 Supervisor Jack Lott and originated when the boundary was changed between Beats 4 and 5.

Beat 2 Supervisor Mrs. Frank Kellar and Beat 1 Supervisor Charles Russ were also subpoenaed.

The hearing was scheduled during the time of the State Supervisor Convention in Jackson Sept. 13-15.

Supervisors and supervisors' nominees attending the convention were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lott, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Shaw, Charles Lavinghouse, James A. Necaise, Charles Russ and R. G. Hubbard Jr.

Supervisors will meet at 9 a.m. Friday for a general business session, according to Clerk A. C. Mitchell.

Total county millage for the new year, which was indicated at the last meeting as being approximately the same as last year, should be officially set at Friday's meeting, Beat 5 Supervisor R. G. Hubbard Jr. said.

Donors Give School Board to Ask 92 Pints Of Blood

Ninety-two pints of blood to replenish the Hancock County Blood Bank's exhausted supply were donated at a drawing Wednesday afternoon and evening conducted at the Youth Center under auspices of technicians from the Oschner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans.

Blood bank officials had hoped to collect at least 160 pints in the drawing, first since last spring, in an effort to give themselves a little backlog as well as repaying some of the precious substance borrowed from Oschner's since the county had none left in its reserve there.

In the week preceding the drawing, the blood bank had concentrated intently on restoring its financial position, asking for monetary contributions to carry out its mechanical operations.

Checks may still be mailed to the bank at P. O. Box 254, Bay St. Louis.

Yesterday's drawing drew citizens from throughout the county but the great majority were from the Bay. Those on the donor list are:

P. E. McGinty, John H. Ginn, Mrs. Betty Romanoff, Mrs. Warren Buehler, Charles Ladner, Lester J. Ladner, William H. Musser, Mrs. Henrietta Kimmel, Mrs. William R. Lamb, Mrs. Marien Armistead, Frank F. Tanc, Edward Kimmel Jr., Joseph J. Kersanac, D. W. North Jr., Eugene F. Monti, Alvin M. Genn, Robert L. McKinley, Thomas V. Farve, Cathy Roosevelt, Charles L. Gager, Horace V. Geoffrey, Peter B. Farve, A. J. Monti, Don McCulloch, Luke F. Benigno, Harold E. Kranky, James A. Fillington, Harold J. Stigler, Henry F. Farve, Harold J. Saucier, Walley W. Tate, Bernice J. Piazza, Dave N. McDonald, Grace Pallo, John S. Maloney, Howard Cox, the Rev. Kevin Reid, Al Cox. (Cont. on Page 4-A.)

Donors Give School Board to Ask 92 Pints Of Blood

Problems concerning bus routes and soft drink vending machines at the new North Central School, disposition of vacant schools, and the lack of future operating funds plagued the Hancock County School Board at a recessed meeting Tuesday night.

Board members plan to before the Board of Supervisors Friday morning to see if the 20 mills allocated for the county schools can be increased. The millage is divided into two separate parts, 10 from the General Fund and 10 from the District Maintenance Fund.

Millage on the new budget has not been increased, observed Mrs. C. C. McDonald, board chairman, and the nine mills added to the school millage several years ago to ease transportation problems were removed in last year's budget.

The consolidation of four schools at North Central is more economical in the long run, but it brings increased maintenance expenses in custodial, electric and heat departments, she noted.

When North Central was completed this year, a large amount of permanent equipment was purchased which will last for years and the physical facilities are certainly better than anything the county had before, but the school still needs additional teaching equipment, she added.

All of the county children are now receiving nine months of education where last year they received only eight, she observed.

Operating funds for all schools are very low and with the large enrollment of North Central, 20 mills will not be enough to complete the year, Mrs. McDonald said.

The board told a group of parents headed by Donald Wahl, who protested the soft drink vending machines on North Central campus that the board will have to discuss the matter further.

Wahl said he would rather have a cigarette machine and a cold beer box on the campus than the soft drinks, which he considered poisonous. He added that their presence would lead to borrowing among the children and eventually gambling in order to obtain money to buy the drinks.

Members of the parents group added that the health of their children was more important than additional money for the athletic and playground funds, for which proceeds from the drink sales are slated.

Mrs. McDonald explained that problems of this sort could be solved by the board.

Grand Jury Brings True Bills on Three

True bills of indictment against three defendants were returned by the grand jury Tuesday as the September term of Circuit Court got under way. No true bills were found in five other presentments and no disposition was made in another instance.

Scheduled to enter pleadings before Judge Leslie B. Grant Friday morning on charges returned against them are Frank Schoenmaker, 19-year-old Bay youth charged in connection with an altercation with City Police Officer Julius Webb, and Emmitt Frederick, Kiln Negro charged in a shooting at Waveland last week.

Schoenmaker's bond was fixed at $3,000 on charges of assault and battery with intent and grand larceny. Frederick's bonds were set at $1,000 in two assault and battery cases.

The other true bill involves child desertion, and the defendant has not yet been apprehended.

J. Roland Weston served as foreman of the jury. Other members were Arnold Carver, Willie E. Stockstill, Frances Lester Harrell, Johnnie Banks, Dr. B. L. Ramsey, Sam Dill, Hollan Ladner, Clarence C. Chadwick Jr., O. W. Delph, Paul Guidry, Jack Carbonette, Hayward E. Ladner, Julius William Olsen, Norvin Kelly, Charles Thigpen and Albert Burton, Negro.

Grand jurors declined to indict Hamilton Guesard against whom assault and battery charges were lodged; Charley Mitchell in a breaking and entering case; Glen Sanford and Homer Gregory, both charged with assault and battery with intent, and Elvie Yarbrough against whom a complaint about discharging firearms was lodged.

Felony charges, held over from previous terms, which were passed involved Harold Lee Coston, bigamy; Robert Heath Jr., burglary and armed robbery, and Jerry Dan Richter, accessory after the fact.

In appeals from justice of peace hearings, charges of reckless driving against Suzanne J. Ballard were not pressed and cases of assault and battery and disturbing the peace against Homer Gregory were passed, probably to be heard Friday.

Civil cases heard through Thursday are: Arthur R. Thibault vs. Marshall R. Young Drilling Co., passed to file; A. Frank Selph vs. T. T. Reboul, continued; Norton Haas vs. T. T. Reboul, continued; Norton Haas vs. Samuel Ballard and the Sea Coast Echo, continued because of illness of plaintiff's counsel, R. L. Gennin; W. W. Grainger, Inc., vs. George S. Horton, non-suited; Robert A. Epperson vs. William R. Mackey and Mrs. William Mackey, judgment by default $996.30.

Trallmobile, Inc., vs. Wallace V. Jeanfreau, passed; Mrs. Juanita Henry Darnett, executrix of estate of John B. Darnett, vs. Howard Van Lines, Inc., dismissed last term; Neal Monaghan, commissioner, State Tax Commission, vs. Ira Lee, passed; Campbell Grocery Co., vs. David Mellere, passed; Atlas Finance Corp. vs. Milton J. and Beatrice Toepfer, passed; Dr. John G. Menville vs. Houston Smith, non-suited; Gary L. Price vs. Albert J. Tavey, set for Sept. 29; Robert E. Cuevas vs. Metters Insurance Corp., settled and dismissed at cost of defendant.

Melvin Altimus vs. Thomas Drabick, set for call Monday; Mrs. Melvin Altimus vs. Thomas F. Drabick, Monday for call; C. & F. Packing House Market, Inc., vs. David E. Mellere, doing business as Midway Grocery, passed; The Merchants Co. vs. Wilmer's Grocery, a partnership, non-suited; Seago, Callender Co. vs. Wilmer Thibaux, continued; Commercial Finance Plan, Inc. vs. Mabel Cader, passed.

Ed. F. O. Garner vs. Garland E. Taylor, call Monday; Ben Merreale vs. George Garcia, continued; Russell Finance Co., Inv., vs. Elsie M. Bounds, call Friday; Addison L. Bounds, call Friday; Peter R. Bernius vs. John A. McQuarrie, continued by agreement of parties; Associates Discount Corp. vs. James J. Doyle, dismissed; Associates Discount Corp. vs. Maurice P. Mercader sr., call Friday; Arcie Courtege et al vs. Byron Baker Rawland, Monday for call; Securities Investment Co. vs. Carl H. Miller and Paul T. Miller, continued; Mrs. Frances E. Kiln Negro Indicted In Weekend Shooting

Emmitt Frederick, 26-year-old Negro from Kiln, was indicted on two charges of assault and battery with intent to kill by the Hancock County grand jury in connection with the Saturday night shooting of a Waveland Negro woman and her daughter.

He was held without bond at the county jail and will be arraigned before Judge Leslie B. Grant in Circuit Court Friday morning.

Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner Jr. allegedly said Frederick wounded Ed Johnson, 50, and her daughter Rose Nelson, 23, with a .22 caliber pistol during an argument about 11:30 p.m. Saturday outside the Hide-Away Club on Main Street.

Witnesses said Frederick dragged the girl from a car in which she was sitting after an argument.

Ladner said witnesses told him Frederick fired once at the girl with a pistol and shot her mother in the abdomen when she tried to aid her daughter.

Frederick was turned over to custody of Sheriff Ladner and deputies Gerald Favre and Raul Tellard after he voluntarily surrendered himself at the city fire station.

Department Chain Store To Open Here

One of the South's fastest growing department store chains, Hart Stores, Inc., of Mobile, Ala., will open in Bay St. Louis within the next month, locating in the former Hooty Jungle Supermarket building at Second and Main Streets.

The chain operates junior department stores in several other Gulf Coast cities, and plans additional expansion in this growing area.

Remodeling is now in progress at its local site, giving the building a completely new appearance both inside and out. It will have over 5,000 square feet of selling area, brightly illuminated by continuous fluorescent lighting. Adequate off-street parking will be available to shoppers on two sides of the store with space for more than 15 cars.

A large and varied selection of ready to wear for men, women and children will be featured at popular prices. The store also will offer a complete piece goods and domestics department, home furnishings and one of the largest shoe departments along the coast, as well as work clothing and other merchandise. Layaway plans will be available the year round throughout the store and a check cashing service for payroll checks without charge or obligation.

The grand opening is planned on or before Oct. 15, and Hart buyers have been combing the markets for the greatest values and latest styles for the gala event. Various free gifts will be given to the children.

Beat Pass; Tigers Gird For Carriere

Bay High ramped to a smashing 25-6 victory last Friday over Pass Christian High at Pass Christian in their season opener.

Scoring the first and last touchdowns of the game, Billy Watts, speedy Bay High fullback, led the attack. Pass Christian opened the game kicking off to the Tigers. Watts took the kickoff on his own 20 yard line and raced 80 yards through the entire Pass team for a touchdown. The kick was no good and after two plays the score was Bay High 6 Pass Christian 0.

Delinquent Tax Sale is Monday

Hancock County's delinquent tax lands will be sold at 11 a.m. Monday at the front door of the Courthouse by Sylvan J. Ladner, sheriff and tax collector.

Payment can be made up until the time of sale Monday by the land owners, and the land can be redeemed by the owners at any time during the two years following the sale by paying the delinquent taxes and interest of one half of one per cent a month.

Taxes on the land, which will be sold to the highest cash bidder, must be paid for two years following the date of sale before the land can be legally claimed.

Correction

The Echo was in error last week when it reported that former Hospital Board Treasurer T. T. Reboul Jr. had been serving as hospital administrator. Mrs. Louis Depres, supervisor of nurses, was named acting administrator in June, following the resignation of Edgar Little. Estimated moving costs given the board by the Hospital Commission were $25,000 with Reboul's estimate being $17,000.

A shipment of 2,500 bushels of slash pine cones was made to the Waynesboro Nursery during the first week of buying by the Mississippi Forestry Commission at Rocky Hill tower north of Kiln, according to Marion Parker, area forester.

Whitfield Gets Post on Seafood Body

Kenneth P. Whitfield, 39-year-old Bay Businessman, this week assumed his seat on the Mississippi Seafood Commission, having been appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late Walter Gex which runs until 1961.

A graduate of Mississippi College and a World War II veteran, Whitfield also studied at Tulane University and holds a master's from Cincinnati. He is the third generation of his family to be associated with the Whitfield businesses in Hancock and Pearl River Counties.

He is a member of the American Legion, was present of the Rotary Club and on the board of Hancock County Chamber of Commerce. Whitfield has been first aid and water safety director for the Red Cross and a director for eight years of civil defense mobilization in the county. He is active in the Baptist Church and a former superintendent of its Sunday School.

Rudeness Is Rudeness

In recent weeks, and particularly this week, individuals and organizations have been showing various objections to the visit to this country by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev. The United States Congress even adjourned early, after an all night session, to avoid having to extend the courtesy of an invitation to address a joint session of that body to the visiting premier.

When such able and knowing people as the senators from Mississippi and the senate leader, Lyndon Johnson, favor such procedures, this editor can not but wonder at his own opinion, which is diametrically opposite.

Irrespective of whether one approves of the decision of President Dwight Eisenhower to go to Russia, which the Echo considers foolish, or of the President's invitation to Premier Khrushchev to visit the United States, those decisions were made, the invitations accepted and both heads of states will be the official guests of the other country. In essence this means they are the guests of each and every citizen of the country they are visiting.

The Congress, because of the reason given for adjournment, points up its own error. It adjourned to avoid extending a courtesy it considered necessary. If congress should be courteous, it should be courteous and its action was rude.

Although we can understand that individuals who have suffered, or whose family and friends have suffered, at the hands of Russia and Russians have a personal feeling of dislike or hatred, the same observation applies to those other bodies and individuals who have been and are expressing dislike of Premier Khrushchev. Rudeness is rudeness; to a guest it is merely more extreme.

In addition to the question of rudeness to a guest, the Congress and others are lessening the remote chance that some material benefit to the United States and to mankind will evolve from the exchange of visits by the heads of state of the world's two most powerful countries.

We'll give odds that when President Eisenhower visits Russia he receives more courteous treatment. Doesn't it make you mad to be shown up—particularly by your enemies.

Good Luck, North Central

Hancock County's newest school is now in operation. North Central High School opened August 28th with an enrollment materially exceeding the anticipated 700.

Some of the bugs that developed early have already been ironed out. The others are sure to be. In any event Hancock County has taken a step forward in carrying out the Mississippi Legislature's program of consolidating small inadequate schools into modern, physically adequate and better staffed schools.

It's a couple of years too soon to know the results at North Central, but the Echo believes and hopes the school will provide improved education for the area it serves. Similar consolidations in other areas have had that result.

In honor of its birth, the Echo is this week devoting much of the second section to pictures of North Central. Good luck and good education, North Central!

An easy and important way to give support to a school in which you are interested, whether you attended or not, is to join an organization supporting the school. At present at least two such local organizations have on drives for memberships: the Booster's Club for Bay High School, and the Sideline Club for St. Stanislaus.

Want to help your favorite school? Join its supporters in their club.

In the Picayune item last week our colleague, well-known Editor Chance H. Cole, brags that Picayune and Pearl River County have another First by virtue of the county electing the youngest representative ever elected in Mississippi, Ed Stevens. Pearl River must have a hard time locating a First, since many would interpret this fact as showing that Pearl River voters are last in judgment or last in qualified candidates.

Congressional Sidelights

By WILLIAM M. COLMER

By the time this appears in print the First Session of the 86th Congress will be history. As usually happens, a target date was set for adjournment only to be abandoned at the last moment. The Congress will adjourn on September 12, 1959. Two major bills are on the way. First, the Commerce Department is pushing the bill to amend the Federal Trade Commission Act. The second bill is the Federal Reserve Act. The House is expected to pass the bill on September 15. The Senate is expected to pass the bill on September 16. The bill is expected to be signed by the President on September 17.

County Schools...

worked out in the future by a parent's club which North Central Superintendent R. E. Webb plans to organize immediately. But both County Superintendent E. E. Breland and board member S. P. Powell observed that any final decisions affecting the school would have to be made by the School Board.

The board agreed to increase the contract by $20 on private bus route No. 19 driven by Cecil Ladner to extend it to the homes of Artis Ladner and Rush Ladner at Dedeaux which had been overlooked when the routes for North Central had been revised. Mrs. Artis Ladner complained that her children had been forced to walk three-quarters of a mile to the school bus.

Mr. and Mrs. Reger Goss of the old Caesar school district, who asked that their children go to North Central instead of the Carriere School in Pearl River County, were told that the board was unable to transport their children to North Central since a petition from the old school district requesting release of that territory to be annexed to the Pearl River district had been accepted at its Aug. 29 meeting.

They were informed that the children would have to go to Carriere School even if the couple had not signed the petition, since it applied to all residents of the district. Pupils in the district have been attending the Carriere School for some time.

Representatives of the Sellers Community Center, Bill Shaw and Troy Smith, were assured the board would keep the needs of the center in mind when removing equipment from the building for use at North Central, but that items needed by the new school would have to be taken. Shaw and Smith asked if some of the heavy kitchen equipment could be left in the building, now used by the center.

Three Leetown residents, Culbert Lee, Chester Lee and Clinton Lee, who had previously sought use of the vacated Leetown School as a community center were assured the group would be able to purchase the school as soon as some form of permanent agreement could be worked out.

The group was authorized to move the lunchroom building and busane tank onto another section of the school property. When the property was originally obtained in two sections, both contracts provided it would revert to the original owners when it ceased to be used for school purposes.

The board reaffirmed its policy of several years ago that bus drivers would be paid five cents a mile over the contract on everything above 25 miles one way and/or 50 miles round trip.

Two cases in which school buses were being driven by young boys, one under-age, instead of by the original contractors, were to be investigated by board member Lyle Necaise who is to report when the board reconvenes at 9 a.m. Saturday.

The board agreed to pay Albert Necaise $72 and Mrs. Albert Necaise $54 for the nine days in August that they worked as janitors for North Central. The couple was originally hired on a monthly basis.

stringent civil rights bills, on the other hand, threaten that, unless they are assured by the leadership of the Senate that such bills will be considered immediately upon the reconvening of Congress in January, they will try to substitute these harsh proposals for the rider to amend the Civil Rights Commission. Such a development would force a re-bitter-and fight that might go on for days and days. What the outcome may be is uncertain as we write this.

Bay Will Get Smaller Cars In '60 Styles

With the current trend towards smaller and more compact cars, Bay St. Louis and Hancock County residents will have an opportunity this fall to choose between four different sizes locally.

The new Ford Falcon will be handled by Bay Motors Inc., and will be shown Oct. 8.

Gulf Chevrolet Co. will unveil the new Chevrolet Corvair on Oct. 2.

Bankston's Motors will display Plymouth's new Valiant which will be demonstrated sometime this fall. They will also be agents for Dodge trucks.

General Motors' Vauxhall, an English made auto, will again be handled here by Porter's Pontiac Service. This model does not have a new showing each year.

Pearls In The Sea

Shellfish ratings of raw oyster plants in Mississippi made by the U. S. Public Health Service gave her first place among the Southeastern states of the Carolinas, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Mississippi. This evaluation is based on growing control area, policing, state laws and regulations, state inspection, harvesting and processing. The average score for 27 plants inspected in Harrison, Jackson and Hancock counties was 95.1.

Once upon a time the prosperity of the Mississippi Gulf Coast was primarily based on seafood and pine timber, and oysters were shipped from our seaside cities in great quantities, to command peak prices.

With our oyster beds now well-nigh depleted, we have been by-passing an industry that once thrived here. Through reforestation we regrow trees which nature cultivates on its own with a little encouragement. Why not restore the oyster reefs which men have destroyed or neglected? Oysters like trees replenish themselves if given the opportunity.

We are continually on the alert here in our search for new industries. The seafood industry, first to flourish in this area, need never be exhausted, for oysters are a perennial crop that may be harvested over and over.

We have seen several industries on the Gulf Coast wither away and die, but the seafood business perpetuates itself. Our next major project should be the expansion of our oyster reefs and the cultivation of a business that once prospered here. The sea gives up its wealth as does the land, and they who look into the future predict that the increased population now contemplated will one day be forced to live out of the sea.

There are pearls in these waters and diamonds beneath the feet of all men who go down to the sea in ships to seek hidden treasure. If the oyster could speak for itself, it would proclaim that it has a promising future in the economy of the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

We Thrive On Thrift

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS—Principal of sound government were explained to about 25 Bay St. Louis and Waveland women at the first meeting of the local revitalized chapter. From left are Mrs. C. C. McDonald Jr.; Mrs. E. E. Elcholz of Natchez, state president; Mrs. George A. Dreyfuss of New Orleans, director of the United States league; and Mrs. Richard E. Reeves of New Orleans and Waveland, vice president of the New Orleans league. Officers will be elected at the September 25 meeting at the home of Mrs. D. G. Sellier.

Saturday Rites to Join Miss Salvant, Mr. Sallee

A nuptial mass at 11 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church will unite in marriage Miss Brenda Evis Ann Salvant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Salvant of Waveland, and Ernest Allen Sallee Jr., son of Col. and Mrs. Sallee of Arkadelphia, Ark. The bride's parents will entertain afterwards with a reception in the gardens of their home.

Many friends from New Orleans will meet over for the wedding as well as relatives and friends of the groom-elect from Arkansas. Colonel and Mrs. Sallee and their daughters, Mary Jo and the twins, Jane and Jean, arrived last night to be here until after the ceremony.

Other out of town guests will include Walter Eichelberger and Walter Eichelberger Jr. of Baton Rouge, and Miss Edna Mueller of St. Louis.

The bridal party will be entertained tonight at the Audubon

Boulevard home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Loria in New Orleans with a buffet dinner.

New Orleans has been the scene of a number of other feasts for the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Walter DeBlanc entertained Sunday evening in their honor. Presiding at the coffee table were the bride-elect's grandmother, Mrs. Hamilton Guenard, and Mrs. Harold Wilcox. Miss Peggy Hansmann who will be the honor attendant, and Mrs. Charles Hansmann gave a surprise kitchen shower last Friday while Mrs. Lucas Bruce was hostess at a miscellaneous shower Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Charles Costa and her son, Louis, entertained with a buffet supper and surprise handkerchief shower that night and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Green gave a later afternoon party Sunday.

DYING BUTTONS

Maybe dyed buttons will give you the answer to your problems of: "I just can't find buttons to match the color of my new fall dress".

You can tint buttons either by a cool or a hot dye solution, depending on the type of button. Whichever method you use, experiment with one button before you plunge the whole batch into the dye solution.

For hot tinting, select real white pearl buttons. Other types might melt. Make a strong dye solution. Boil your buttons in the dye until they have the amount of color you want. It may take 10 or 15 minutes.

Use white luster buttons for the cool-dye-solution method. This type of button absorbs color quickly, so use a weak dye solution. Put the buttons in the dye, let them stay only a few seconds—or until they are the color you want—and then remove them.

Careful there! Be sure you turn the handles of the sauce pans away from the edge of the stove. A little hand could easily tip the pan if it touched the handle and spill hot food over little Susie for a bad burn.

BILLOWY MERINGUE

Yes, that's what you want to adorn your pies, puddings and other food creations. One secret is to be sure the temperature of the filling of food the meringues will cover is not too hot. If it is too hot the meringue will "cry" or bead.

If the food the meringue covers is too cold, part of the meringue will collapse and you have a "leak".

To insure perfect soft meringues, pile the stiffly beaten, sweetened or flavored mixture on lukewarm or room temperature foods. Make sure that the meringue "seals-in" the filling.

SEPTEMBER PLENTIFULS

Pork is leader of the September plentiful foods list. Cured pork, pork chops, roasts, spare-ribs, ham, bacon, sausage—all favorites for menu variety. For something different on the meat platter, you should find good buys, too, in family size turkeys.

You'll find milk to drink for a mid-afternoon refresher or a cool aid from lemons or limes. Fruits include pears and grapes. Look for good supplies of lettuce, sweet corn, onions, green peppers and tomatoes.

$15,000 Earmarked for Survey of State's Aged

The U.S. Department of Health Education and Welfare has allocated $15,000 for a survey of the needs of Mississippi's older citizens. H. J. Massie, executive secretary for the Mississippi Council on the Aging, has announced.

Results of the survey will be presented at the White House Conference on Aging in Washington in January, 1961.

The survey will cover such questions as:

How many of Mississippi's middle-aged and older people are unable to obtain work they are capable of doing; how can they secure gainful employment; what are the housing needs of Mississippi's older citizens; how can these needs be met; how can Mississippi's older people be assured of incomes large enough for health and for taking part in family and community life, and what is an adequate income?

The Mississippi Council on Aging was organized in 1957 by representatives of public, private and other agencies working with older people. The council gathers, interprets, and distributes information on the social, economic and health problems of the aging of Mississippi, and serves as a coordinating agency for all groups and as an advisory body on problems of the aging.

The ever-increasing population of older people has made the council's work necessary. Massie pointed out that in 1930, Mississippians 65 years of age and over represented 3.6 per cent of the total population of the state. In 1950, that percentage had risen to 7 per cent. The average estimated life expectancy for Mississippians in 1900 was 46.3 years for men and

Legume Cover Crops Reduce Farmers' Production Costs

One way farmers can reduce the cost of producing crops in 1960 is through establishment of a legume cover crop that will protect the soil from winter rains that cause erosion.

That advice came this week from Fitzhugh Lee, chairman of the County ASC Committee, who cited recent experiments conducted by the Coastal Experiment Station in Newton County which showed this cover produces the same benefits as applying three sacks of ammonium nitrate per acre.

In addition, tests show cover crops reduce soil loss by one-fourth, add humus to the soil, aid internal drainage and increase water holding capacity.

Lee suggests that each year farmers plant approximately 25 per cent of their row cropland to a legume winter cover crop, working the remaining part of their row cropland early in the spring to permit the cover crops to obtain maximum growth. This rotation would also result in each acre of row cropland having a winter cover crop once every four years.

Farmers are urged to give immediate consideration to planting cover crops since this must be done by Dec. 1 for maximum results. Through the Agricultural Conservation Program the Government offers to share the cost of purchasing cover crop seed on a 50-50 basis with the farmer. These farmers who desire assistance through the ACP for carrying out a conservation practice should contact the Hancock County ASC Office at Bay St. Louis to file their requests for Government cost-sharing.

Mulching Does

Much for Plants

Summer mulches will save time, many steps, money, and many hours of work. Mulching does wonders to plants, and its importance cannot be stressed too much. It is a labor and water saving device.

Mulching with peat moss, pine straw, well-rotted sawdust, or leaves will do a perfect job of conserving moisture and will keep the roots cool and moist during the summer months. A good mulch of peat moss should be kept around the plants all the time.

48.3 for women. In 1955, the average Mississippi woman could expect to live 72.9 years, the average man, 66.7 years, Massie said.

Ladner to Talk At Contest for Forestry Queen

Representative-nominatee Clarence M. Ladner will be the principal speaker at Hancock County's forestry queen contest at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 22 at North Central School, according to Area Forester Marion Parker.

Parker estimated that approximately 27 contestants will seek the title, but the girls will not be identified until they present their applications the night of the contest.

Pop Will Bake In Pie Contest At Gulfview

Don your aprons, men, a pie baking contest is scheduled at the Gulfview School, Lakashore, Saturday, Sept. 26, at 7 p.m. Proceeds will go to pay for the scoreboard in the gymnasium. Pies must be baked by father and son or daughter and cannot be of the ice box variety.

Some of the rules are that father must do at least half the work (mother's idea, no doubt); kitchen must be cleaned up by the ones who bake the pie (mother again); admission at the door is at least one pie per family; pies will be auctioned off to the highest bidders and will be judged for taste and appearance; bakers should use an aluminum or past board to worry a bit out getting pie plate back; those who do not have children in school are admitted free.

First prize is $3, second $2 and third $1. After the auction pies may be donated to be used as refreshments.

Nothing is mentioned in the rules about penalties for pie throwing.

Shoulda Gone Fishin'

BY EDDIE ENGELHORN

Strong winds, rain and high tides caused local fishermen to stay home and clean their reels during the past weekend. Some of the "newer say die" boys were out Monday and Tuesday and reports are that the water was in good condition in the Bay and that the fish were there but were not biting although some fair catches were made in the mouth of the Jordan River and along the seawall between the Seminary pier and the end of the road.

Mackerel stopped biting during the rough weather over the weekend and experienced mackerel fishermen thought the run had ended as it doesn't usually last very long but they started biting again Wednesday morning.

Crabbers and shrimpers are not complaining and one hardy soul was seen crabbing near Clermont Harbor during the squall Sunday. The tide was exceptionally high and waves were breaking over the seawall.

Eddie Price, father of the famous football star of the same name, caught so many mackerel last week that he supplied all his friends and had plenty to give the Sisters at St. Joseph's.

Pat Garcia caught nine trout and one red fish using live bait near the mouth of the Jordan Tuesday morning.

Sam Bush made a nice catch of speckled trout Tuesday. He fished off the seawall near the Seminary pier using market shrimp and cut mullet.

Claihorne (Tebu) Fayard caught ten pounds of speck near the same spot on shrimp.

Emile Schindler has been catching his share of shrimp off the seawall, according to brother Charlie.

Lloyd (Slim) Ladner reports that commercial fishing is at the lowest ebb he has seen in 20 years and that he hasn't seen a fish in more than a month. (We think he is exaggerating a little.)

Slim says he was discussing the scarcity of fish with a member of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service last week who is making a study of conditions that might contribute to the serious lack of commercial fish.

"It has been determined that there is actually no one material thing that makes fish scarce," he said, "but history proves that fish run in cycles. We had another similar cycle 23 years ago when, as now, it just didn't pay to send out a boat for fish. We can still operate, however, on crabs, shrimp and oysters."

Ladner thinks that one of the reasons for the scarcity is excessive speed by outboard hull operators which destroys the eggs in shallow bays, he said.

Trapani Nabs Softball Title in Three Games

Trapani continued its winning streak last Thursday, defeating Georgia 12-6 to wrap up the city softball championship in three straight games.

The game started with a bang when Georgia's big giant opened up and scored five runs in the first half of the first inning. They were determined to win so they could keep the play-off going and, with a five run lead, appeared well on the way to victory.

The Trapani sluggers were not to be outdone, however, and last night evening the score, after making five runs in their half of the first. With one out, Tartavouille beat out a slow grounder to the pitcher and advanced to second on a hot liner to left field hit by Yarbrough who was safe in first.

Tiger Win...

score again in the first quarter and played on fairly even terms for the rest of the first half, both scoring once in the second quarter, quarterback Pete Peterson making the tally on a quarterback sneak good for five yards. Pass Christian's score was set up by a Tiger fumble on the Pirate 10. Halfback Butch Tillman gained the pigskin and scored 90 yards for the lone Pass touchdown. The half ended with Bay High leading 12-6.

The Tigers clinched the game in the third period when Peterson passed to end Johnny Strong in the end zone. The last touchdown came in the final period when Watts plunged over from the three-yard line. Watts also kicked neatly between the goals for the extra point.

Pass fans rose to their feet in the final period when a Bay High fumble was recovered by the Pirates deep in Tiger territory. The Tigers' big line held and the Pirates lost the ball on downs.

Coach Lance Lumpkin is preparing his men for what he believes will be the toughest game of the season tomorrow night with Carriere there.

"If we can get by this one we could have a perfect season," he said. "The score does not indicate it but the game in the Pass Friday was tough. We lost the services of right tackle Tommy Gadin who suffered a broken collarbone and will be out for three or four weeks. Floyd Christy will also be out of action because of a sprained ankle. Barry Stevens is still on the injured list with a broken collarbone."

"We are going out of the conference tomorrow night and Carriere will have the edge but I think we are evenly matched in the line. It should be an interesting game and if the boys play up to the standard set last week we will give Carriere plenty of trouble."

Probable starters will be Gerald Favre, l. g.; Woody Allister, c.; Albert Strong, r. g.; Leo Grece, r. t.; Milton Bernhardt, r. e.; Pete Peterson, q. b.; Van Colson, l. f.; Lester La France, r. h.; and Bill Watts, f. b.

A well placed Texas League over second by Ladner scored Tartavouille. Yarbrough went to third and scored when Oeborn placed another hit over second. Ladner going to third on the play. Another hit over second by Retallick scored Ladner and Oeborn, Retallick racing to third and scoring when Glvine grounded out to second. Mesti advanced a long, high fly to right field to retire the side.

Georgia was held scoreless until the last inning. With two men out Fayard came through with a hard hit, well placed but liner down the third base line that went through three men for a home run making the score 12-6. A last minute rally seemed in the offing when the next man, Pavellini, laid down a slow grounder to short and was called safe at first. Brownlee hit a hot grounder to third but was thrown out to end the game.

Herman Yarbrough, star leftfielder for Trapani, batted 1,000 per cent, slamming out four hits in four times at bat.

Frank Trapani announced that he will have a banquet tonight in the sports room at Trapani's Knock-Knock for the players and their wives.

Before hanging up their gloves and spikes for the season, local players will include in an all day orgy of softball Sunday in Pass Christian at Memorial Park, one block off the beach.

The champion Trapani team is slated to take on Biloxi Hardware at noon in a series of six games between 12 teams from the coastal area. Georgia will also be endeavoring to recover some of its prestige. Proceeds from the concession will be used to defray some of the expenses of the teams. The tournament was postponed from last Sunday because of rain.

Mrs. McDonald Cops Golf Win

Mrs. John McDonald posted a low net of 36 to win top honors in the weekly ladies day competition Tuesday at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club. She also had low puts with 14, but because of already winning one prize, low puts were awarded to the next low scorer, Mrs. Powell Glass Jr. with 16.

Others enjoying the luncheon and competing were Mesdames John Griffin, Guy Buffin, John Ellis, Richard Happ, Ed Gamard, Walter C. Russo, John David, Lester Walters, Don Prentice, Frank Foley, John V. Dugan Jr., Norman Renshaw, C. C. McDonald Jr., William Monroe, Frank Stevens, Horan Turnipseed, Rupert Riggs, Jasper McDonald, W. P. McCutchen, Otis Winnard and Miss Maud Frye.

The club professional, Alex Cunningham, is conducting a series of free golf lessons on Tuesdays at 11 a.m.

The ladies have been invited to participate in an Inter-City match at the Edgewater Golf course Monday.

Miss Julia Frye is to be next Tuesday's luncheon hostess.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONS—Frank Trapani, sponsor of the Bay softball league's winning team, shows off the trophy made and given to him by Mrs. Bea Georgi, sponsor of the squad which lost to him in the playoffs last week, to League President Dick Merritt.

Bayou Caddy Camp Operator Salvages Boat in Distress

A 23-ft. cabin cruiser was salvaged by Joe Cure, owner of the Bayou Caddy Fishing Camp, after it struck a submerged object and sank near St. Joe Point in Herrin Bay last week.

The boat is owned by J. W. Spiers, Picayune garage operator, who, with K. K. "Dink" Lisenbes were on a fishing trip to Half Moon when the craft hit the object and sank within 15 minutes. Spiers and Lisenbes clung to an empty gasoline can for some time before being seen by Cure, who was operating a shrimp boat and came to their rescue.

Spiers said they were being swept out to sea by the wind and tide and at one point a porpoise began blowing at them. They failed in several attempts to halt passing speed boats.

After carrying the pair to safety, Cure went back and towed the submerged boat to his camp.

COMING: TRUCKS THAT DO THE NEXT BEST THING TO PAVING EVERY ROAD IN AMERICA!

Imagine a truck ride so smooth and cushioned that fragile loads can travel the worst "wash-board" roads with ease. Imagine a truck ride that virtually eliminates shimmy and wheel fight, cuts side sway on curves, makes steering far steadier and easier, keeps drivers far fresher. Imagine a truck ride that permits higher safe cruising speeds, more trips per day with all kinds of cargo over every type of road surface. Imagine a ride that keeps up to 78% of all objectionable road shock and vibration from ever reaching the driver and cargo, a design that sharply reduces twisting and fatigue forces on chassis, cabs and bodies, that keeps trucks young for extra thousands of miles. / Soon you won't have to just imagine such a ride. You can try it for yourself in the trucks that do the next best thing to paving every road in America—new Chevrolet trucks for 1960. You'll see what happens when Chevy's truck engineers design a whole new line of trucks around a whole new kind of torsion-spring suspension. These trucks are new from the ground up—with wonderfully roomier cabs, browner frames, style that's fresh as sixty and more! Don't decide on any new truck till you see the newest of all.

See them soon at your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's.

Little Tigers Trounce N.C.

Bay High Juniors won a bang-up game from North Central Tuesday afternoon on the Stanislaus gridiron to the tune of 40-14.

The Bay High boys lost no time starting to roll kicking off to N. Central and forcing them to punt on fourth down. Halfback Cerkly Schindler grabbed the punt and raced 55 yards for the first touchdown. On the second play from scrimmage, right halfback Steve Birch took a hand-off, found an opening and raced 70 yards for a touchdown.

Trips on 6-Yard Line, Rockachaw Threat Fails

A tremendous roar mingled with the wall of a siren marked the end of the first half of Friday night's game between St. Stanislaus and Redemptorist when Rennie Artigues, racing for the Rams' goal line on a beautiful pass play, tripped and hit the turf on the Rams' six yard line ending the Rock-A-Chaw's only serious threat of their opening grid contest.

Stanislaus lost 8-0 to a big powerful Redemptorist team that outweighed Stanislaus by as much as 19 pounds a man, being rated AAA in the conference to Stanislaus' AA.

North Central Loses Opener, But Looks Good

North Central, playing its maiden football game last Friday night, proved surprisingly strong and fooled the experts by holding Vanceville to 14 points, although losing 14-6.

With a little more experience the North Central eleven will be a strong contender in the conference, Coach Bob Clapp of Vanceville said. He was lavish in his praise of North Central's strong defensive play and congratulated Coach Truman Schultz on a well trained squad.

North Central has only scheduled four games this year, their first, and will be idle this Friday.

Although most of the game was played in Stanislaus territory and the Rams scored 10 first downs to the Rock-A-Chaws 8, it was anybody's game until late in the second quarter when Stanislaus took to the air in a desperate attempt to overcome their heavier opponents.

With only time for one final play in the first half, big fullback Joe Lescane faded back some 50 yards behind the line.

Playing with their backs to the wall for virtually the entire game, the fighting Rock-A-Chaws were thrown back repeatedly but when the shadow of their goal post fell upon their backs they dug in and fought the Rams to a standstill, holding them scoreless for three bitterly contested quarters.

In the fourth quarter the weight and depth of the big Redemptorist squad began to tell and it appeared that the Stanislaus men were tiring from the tremendous effort of numerous last ditch stands. There were two bad passes from center, one of which set the stage for the Rams' lone touchdown while the other resulted in a safety when the piker was passed over quarterback Artigues' head. He was in punting position on his own three yard line.

Although most of the game was played in Stanislaus territory and the Rams scored 10 first downs to the Rock-A-Chaws 8, it was anybody's game until late in the second quarter when Stanislaus took to the air in a desperate attempt to overcome their heavier opponents.

With only time for one final play in the first half, big fullback Joe Lescane faded back some 50 yards behind the line.

Mississippi Has Room for Pride

Mississippi has much and many things of which to be proud. The pattern of growth, economically, leads the nation in many fields for the period of 1939 to 1959.

Mississippi ranks 10th in the U. S. in oil production—140 oil fields, 2,300 wells, and 8th in broiler growing. Mississippi ranks 12th in the nation in the number of cattle and calves on farms, and 4th in man-days worked. Exports total $186 million yearly.

In the past 20 years the number of industries and industrial employee totals have tripled. Mississippi produces more hardwood pulpwood than any other state. Mississippi also has the most perfect four-season weather, 40 known salt domes, 13 state parks, and plenty of natural resources.

Deaths

W.L. Sanford

Services were last week for W. L. Sanford, 63, father of Hugh Sanford of Bay St. Louis, who died Sept. 6 at Houston. Also surviving is the widow, Mrs. Estelle Sanford; a daughter, Mrs. John Garner of Macon; two additional sons, Ralph Sanford of Macon and Bernard Sanford of Memphis; four sisters and a number of grandchildren.

O.R. Necaise

Final rites were Thursday at the family residence in Dedeaux for Ollie R. Necaise, 53, who died Sept. 8 in Jackson. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lois Necaise; three daughters, Mrs. Edward Shiley, Pass Christian, Mrs. Eugene Ladner, Perkinston, and Mrs. James Cuevas, Picayune; a sister, Mrs. Joe Winstead, Pass Christian; and six grandchildren.

Religious rites were at the Fenton Catholic Church with burial in Sand Hill Cemetery at Fenton.

Peter Juden

Services were in Atlanta last week for Peter Juden, who died Sept. 7 in Nassau from automobile accident injuries. A former Bay St. Louis resident, he attended St. Stanislaus College. At the time of his death he was associated with an Atlanta firm of architects.

Florencia Davenport

Final rites were Sunday at St. Rose de Lima Catholic Church for Mrs. Florencia Davenport, 67, Negro, of 506 Booker Street, who died about 7 p.m. Thursday at Gulfport Memorial Hospital after a brief illness. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery. She is survived by two brothers, Anthony Durand of Bay St. Louis and August F. Durand of Cleveland, Ohio; and two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Richard of Bay St. Louis and Mrs. Anita Heisser of Cleveland, Ohio.

Negro School Bus Driver Session Set

A one day driver's training school for Hancock County Negro school bus drivers will be conducted from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday at Valena C. Jones school, according to County Superintendent E. E. Breland. Harold Adams of Pascagoula, driver's training teacher employed by the state department of education, will conduct the program. All Negro county bus drivers are required to complete the course and will be awarded a one year driver's certificate by the state.

Waveland Express Agency is Closed

The Waveland Railway Express Agency was closed by the Public Service Commission after application by the Railway Express Agency.

Waveland Mayor Garfield Ladner said the express station handled only about $70 yearly business and a protest would not have accomplished anything.

Scenes of the New North Central School

READY TO GO HOME — School buses fill the driveway at North Central when classes are over. Many students travel as many as ten miles to the new Hancock County consolidated school.

WATCH CAREFULLY NOW — So says science instructor Mrs. L. Seal as she demonstrates an oxygen and water experiment.

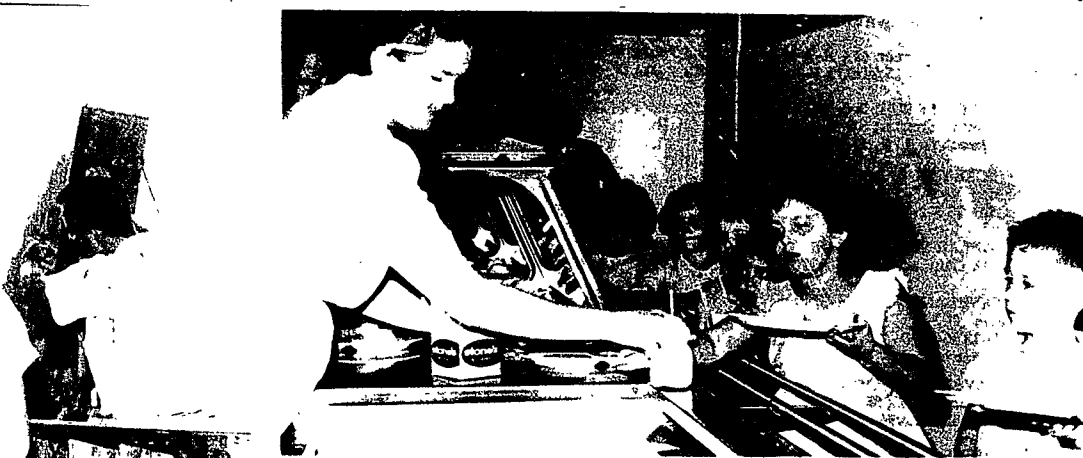

NEWS — Gee Whiz, school just isn't what they said it would be, thinks Rufus Bauer. I wish I were back home new school. But Beth Favre seems to enjoy practicing her letters. And students in Mrs. Edna Niolet's first grade.

REFRIGERATOR — Dewey Babinger of Kiln, student in the cafeteria, brings out another case of milk. The students help out in the cafeteria during the meal time.

SETTING UP SHOP — D. J. Martin, right, directs his vocational agriculture boys as they unload a truck filled with usable equipment from one of the consolidated schools. It will be several weeks yet before all shop equipment will be ready to use.

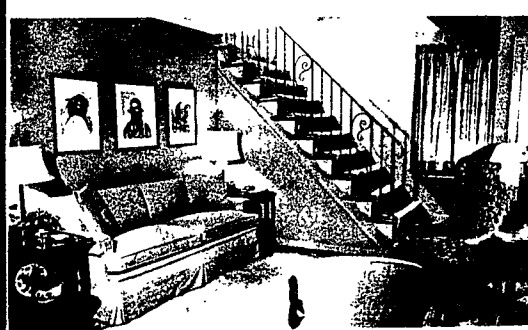

NOT LUNCHES FOR OVER 700 STUDENTS — Mrs. J. T. Lee, cafeteria supervisor, serves milk to one of the primary students passing down the new serving counter. The cafeteria served 788 lunches the first day.

St. Stanislaus Yearbook Gets National Recognition

The 1959 White Cap of St. Stanislaus College has been awarded B plus rating by the National School Yearbook Association at Columbia, Mo., Director N. S. Paterson has announced. The rating, meaning very good to excellent, places it in the upper fifth of books entered in its category. Paterson said the competition this year was the best in the nine years of the organization. NSYA is the youngest of the national services and is the only one publishing its own national magazine exclusively for yearbook staffs. This is photolith magazine, so named because NSYA was the first service to recognize the growing significance of the photolithography process. He noted the attractive cover, greater use of action pictures in even the most formal sections, advised placing the proposal, though essential, class section at the back of the book. The staff adviser was brother Jean. Brother Godfrey handled the photography. Kenny Aucoin, Douglas Black, Donald Duhon and Mac Treilles were staff members.

First Baptist Fetes Teachers

First Baptist Church entertained with a reception in honor of school teachers Sunday in the educational auditorium.

Members of the congregation assisted Mrs. Roy Dennis, church hostess, in making the reception a success. Mrs. A. H. Gregory and Mrs. Ira Russell served punch, and Mrs. Nolan Ladner and Mrs. E. S. Perry served coffee. Young ladies of the church distributed cakes by trays to those present.

The pastor, Dr. Franklin Atkinson, reported that response was very good.
